Instructions of downloading the customized characters

1. Open the test software, choose the port and model name, for example USB interface.

Note: Pls make sure you could print the test page via this test software before moving to next step.

2. Click"Advanced" choose"open file send", download the file "customized code page 7. bin" from your computer. After hearing the beep, its meas the customized code page was downloaded successfully. See pictures as below:

3. After downloading, you could print the test receipt, and see if all the characters are changed as your requirements.